cut such a clip that he sailed away from the field and was leading Kiviat by ten yards at the end of the first quarter, completed in 56 seconds.

Meredith was on Kiviat's heels and when McHugh blew up at 500 yards the race appeared to be between them, as Baker was at least ten yards behind. As seen as Meredith started to go by Kiviat at the bottom of the backstretch the winged foot man started the sprint that electrified the crowd. He sailed by the two Olympic heroes as though they were standing still and had five yards on Meredith as they straightened out in the race as they straightened out in the race the tape. Then the Penn freshman ned up in earnest, nailed Baker fifty ds from the finish and opened a gap of sards from the finish and opened a gap of eight yards before he hit the tape. Kiviat stenned without making a real effort, as it was his first outdoor race of the season, and Tom Halpin, the quarter mile chambion, came through to take third place, three yards behind Baker. The time, 1 minute 56 4-5 seconds, showed that Baker had run the best race of his career.

Matt McGrath scored over his rival Ryan in the hammer throw, with the fine heave of 185 feet 5 inches, while Jim Duncan won the discus throw with 247 feet, making 138 feet 5 inches with his right hand effort. The summaries:

There were two minor accidents, but although the play was fast and furious not one of the big four was hurt. In the third period Keene while trying to stop a lofted shot for goal was struck on the knee by the ball with such force that he knee by the ball with such force that he was nearly toppied from his saddle. Play was stopped for a while until he was ready to resume. Capt. E. D. Miller, the referee, met with a similar accident in the seventh period. He had thrown the ball in and the first shot sent it back against his knee. He was compelled to give up the task of referee, although the injury is not believed to be serious.

The Meadow Brooks started off with a rush and after Stevenson had opened with a goal for the Wanderers the internationalists scored three times in the first goal penalty in the second and there was no goal, though Whitney sent the ball through just after the bell rang. La Montagne and J. M. Waterbury divided the goal making in the third and the fourth chukker was blank save for a penalty against the Wanderers.

The second was 3.1.2 to 1.1.2 at half time. The score was 3 1-2 to 1 1-2 at half time, but from that time on the scratch team played vigorous polo, while the cup de-finders took matters more easily and though the Wanderers lost another half goal by penalty they finished only half a goal to the bad. A crowd of nearly two thousand persons saw the game, which, was the most exciting of any of the practice.

VARDON AND RAY TO BE SEEN AT SHAWNEE

British Champions Will Have First Competition Here on August 22 and 23.

ARRIVAL DATE SETTLED

Miss Lillian B. Hyde and Miss Marion Hollins to Play at Baltusrol To-morrow.

Word has been received from A. W. Tillinghast, secretary of the Shawnee Country Club, to the effect that Edward Ray and Harry Vardon, present and former open golf champions, respectively, of Great Britain, have written their entries for the Shawnee open tournament, scheduled for August 22 and 23. This should set at rest all doubt as to the arriving time of the famous Britons. It will mark their first competitive appear-

When the open tournament was held at Shawnee last summer Fred McLeod won first money, beating out Gil Nicholls in the last round. The last named, however, made the course record of 74, which still stands. Nicholls will not play any golf for some time to come. An attack of typhoid pneumonia has left him in a much weakened condition.

A month's respite after the busy metro-politan week will suffice for the Fox Hills Golf Club, which has announced conditions for the annual invitation spring tourna-ment. June 26, 27 and 28. There will be an eighteen hole qualifying round, con-testants to classify themselves in four sixteens for the Fox Hills, Clifton, South-field and Aquehonga cups.

The latest acquisition to the ranks of the New York Newspaper Golf Club is none other than Jerome D. Travers. thrice national and five times metro-politan champion. Not long since the officials of the club voted to make him an honorary member and the Upper Mont-clair golfer was notified to that effect. The other day Harry Haines, secretary of the newspaper club, received a letter of acceptance from Travers. Author of a book on golf, the champion may now be said
